1.	Jet planes have been observed flying over the Black Sea and along the Bulgarian coast. These planes are based at the Burgas/Sarafovo airfield. For "some months," Soviet air officers in uniform have been observed in Burgas. Their ranks run from lieutenant to colohel. These officers wear the same uniform as the Bulgarian officers and can be distinguished from them only when they
		lly move about in gr	*		00.
2.	In mid-autumn 1952, Soviet tank officers were first observed in the streets of Burgas. They moved about only in small groups and were accompanied by Bulgarian interpreters. These officers are quartered in the barracks formerly occupied by
